Review of events to current given by Attorney de la Mora. The sense de la Mora gets from his conversations with the WRS is the decision will be sooner versus later. When asked if the LCFR employees would be able to join the WRS and participate in all the benefits, they said we did not have to wait until January 1, 2011 and further stated if we were approved by the SSA prior to April 1, 2010 we would not be required to resubmit our applications and go thru the underwriting process again. The only consideration would be to join on the first day of the month. Discussion regarding contact of government officials resulted in the decision to wait until after de la Mora was able to follow-up with WRS if a decision had not been reached prior to February 10th unless an opportunity presented itself.
