

Friends of the Delafield Public Library Book Sales

Monthly book sales at the library annex (lower level of the Chamber of Commerce building) are going well. Book lovers are discovering it as a great place to shop with ease, after much work has been done in organizing the changing inventory. We are planning to have book sales every Saturday, beginning May 9th, in conjunction with the opening of the Delafield Farmer's Market. The hours will be 9:00-1:00. Come and check out what's available, including CD's, DVD's, and audio books. If you are interested in assisting with our Saturday book sales or joining the Friends with other activities, call Marty Wiley at 262-646-2529. We have a busy summer ahead with Delafield's Block Party on June 20th and the city's 50th Anniversary in July. Another way to help is to do some spring cleaning on your own bookshelves and donate what you've been reading to the Friends. You can arrange for pick-up by calling Char Hall at 262-646-4519 (we give tax receipts) or you can drop them off in the metal box outside of the annex.
